THE PLEDGE

India is my country. All Indians are my brothers and sisters.

I love my country and I am proud of its rich and varied heritage, I shall always strive to be worthy of it.

I shall give my parents, teachers and all elders respect and treat everyone with courtesy.

To my country and my people, I pledge my devotion. In their well-being and prosperity alone lies my happiness.

OUR EMBLEM

The emblem of the college is a pictorial representation of its vision and mission. Just beneath the name of the college is given the picture of a book kept open. The avowed mission of the institution is to transform all who enter its portals into better informed and more useful citizens. Even in this era of advanced technology and scientific progress, books come handy in a big way for the dissemination of knowledge. Knowledge is power. The Sanskrit dictum Jnanam paramnjyothi forming part of the emblem means that knowledge is the supreme form of light. Just above the name of the place where the college is situated, is given the picture of a burning lamp. Significantly enough, it is shown to burn in darkness. A lamp serves to dispel darkness. That is what a guru/teacher also does: she/he dispels the darkness of ignorance from the mind of every student. The motto of the college clearly echoes the Upanishadic statement tamaso ma jyothirgamaya.

ജയ ജയ ജയ ജയഹേ!

This is the first of five stanzas composed by Poet Rabindranath Tagore, first sung at a meeting on 27-12-1911, first published in Tattava Bodhini Pathrika under the title “Bharat Vidhata” in January, 1912, translated into English by the Poet himself under the title “Morning Song of India” in 1919 and adopted as our National Anthem by the Constituent Assembly on 24-1-1950

The following is from Tagore’s own translation :-

“Thou art the Ruler of the minds of all people, Dispenser of India’s destiny. The name rouses the hearts of the Punjab, Sind, Gujarat and Maratta, of the Dravid and Orissa and Bengal; it echoes in the hills of the Vindhya and Himalayas, mingles in the music of the Ganges and Jamuna and is chanted by the waves of the Indian sea. They pray for Thy blessings and sing Thy praise. The saving of all people waits in Thy hand, Thou Dispenser of India’s destiny. Victory, Victory, Victory to Thee!”
