COLLEGE ALUMINAE REPORT2014-2015

Annual alumni meet conducted in the month of November 2014 with the newer events and the same motive of bringing students and alumni together. Alumni and students from all walks of life and all disciplines meet together.Meeting was inaugurated by old student and Ex-Revenue minister of Kerala Adv. K P Rajendranand honoured Prof.T L Soni, who secured theBest NSS Programme Officer award at University ,State levels and won Indira Gandhi National Award. Discussions were conducted about carrying out a social campaign in order to address and bring about a change at its own level. Besides this there will be a chance for students as well as alumni to interact with the well known Alumnus NGO's along with student owned NGO's.

With the aim of mending the broken link between students and alumni, launched Alumni Student Mentorship Program (ASMP) with the belief that close and continual interaction with alumni will help students gather invaluable advice regarding overall development and will also aid them in taking crucial informative life-changing decisions.

The students graduating from the institute are of the highest caliber, who have reached positions of eminence in industry, business, public sector, academic and research institutions or as entrepreneurs. The institute had long felt the need to recognize the Alumni of the college who have distinguished themselves in their field of work and done the institute proud. With this intention the distinguished Alumnus awards have been instituted. The award was given on 26th January.
