Department of English

World Translation Day

Report

The Department of English celebrated the World Translation Day on 3 October 2023. The World Translation Day is celebrated across the globe on 30 September every year. The department organised a lecture and a reading session of the translations done by the PG students.

The programme started with the welcome address delivered by Dr. Priya Ravinath, the programme coordinator. Presidential address was delivered by Dr. Denis Joseph Anatty Olekkengil, the Head of the Department of English. The key note lecture was delivered by the writer, translator, and historian Dr. P.S. Manoj Kumar, Principal, Sri C. Achutha Menon Govt. College, Thrissur on the topic “Challenges of a Translator: A Personal Story.” He shared his personal experiences in translating different genres of writing across various cultures around the globe. Dr. Sreeparvathy D., IQAC member felicitated the programme. There was a reading session where the PG students presented their translated works. The interaction session that followed was very lively. Ms. Namitha Asokan, S3 M.A. English, proposed the vote of thanks.

The programme was held at the ORICE Hall. The final year undergraduate students and the PG students attended the programme.
