MOUNTAIN ECHOES:

REAL LIFE NARRATIVES OF A MOUNTAINEER

11 December is celebrated as the International Mountain Day. As part of the celebration, an interactive session with Preetham Menon was jointly organised by the Department of English and the Active Citizen Group of the college on 13 December, 2023. Preetham Menon, who hails from Thrissur, is an Adventure Entrepreneur. He's been in over 20 Mountaineering Expeditions. He narrated his passion for adventure and the challenges that he faced during his various expeditions. His talk was a step towards empowerment and youth leadership development. Dr Sijo Varghese C, Associate Professor, Department of English, coordinated the programme. He introduced the speaker and explained the importance of mountain narratives in the genre of travel narratives. Angel Rose Lalu, I Semester M.A. English, proposed the vote of thanks. The first semester post graduate students of English department and student members of the Active Citizen group attended the event. The programme was held at English Seminar Hall at 2 pm.
