Report: Women's Day Program Inaugurated at Sri C. Achutha Menon Government College, Thrissur

Date: March 1, 2024

Time: 10:30 AM

Venue: Sri C. Achutha Menon Government College, Thrissur

On March 1, 2024, Sri C. Achutha Menon Government College, Thrissur, commenced its Women's Day program with an inaugural ceremony. The event, inaugurated by Principal Sri Manojkumar P.S., began with a poignant discussion on the significance of celebrating Women's Day and the imperative of recognizing and supporting marginalized individuals globally and within India.

Principal Sri Manojkumar emphasized the importance of acknowledging and uplifting those who are sidelined across the world and in Indian society. He underscored the need for collective efforts in addressing issues of gender discrimination and empowering women in all spheres of life.

The program was enriched by a soul-stirring recitation of Maya Angelou's renowned poem "Still I Rise," performed by postgraduate students of the English department. The powerful rendition of the poem added a profound emotional resonance to the event, capturing the resilience and spirit of women overcoming adversity.

Dr. Sheeja P.C., in her enlightening talk, shared her personal experiences and insights into empowering women. She shed light on the challenges faced by women, including victimization and gender discrimination prevalent in various domains. Her discourse provided valuable perspectives on the ongoing struggle for gender equality and the imperative of creating inclusive spaces for women's advancement.

The event began with a warm welcome extended by Dr. D.Sreeparvathy, Associate Professor of History and Women's Cell Coordinator. Dr. Sreeparvathy's gracious welcome set the tone for an engaging and inclusive gathering, emphasizing the college's commitment to promoting gender equality and women's empowerment.

Mrs. Animol Jacob, Assistant Professor of the History department, delivered the vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to all participants and contributors who made the event a success. Her acknowledgment of the collective effort and dedication demonstrated the spirit of unity and collaboration fostered during the Women's Day program.

The inauguration of the Women's Day program at Sri C. Achutha Menon Government College, Thrissur, marked the beginning of a week-long series of events aimed at raising awareness, promoting dialogue, and fostering empowerment in support of women's rights and gender equality. As the college continues its endeavors in creating an inclusive and equitable environment, the Women's Day program serves as a beacon of inspiration and advocacy for a more just and equitable society.
