Three day National Seminar on Historicising Epistemologies and Paradigms: The Mahabharata

Dates: 28, 29 & 30
October 2025
Venue: Orice Hall

Sponsored by:
Kerala Council for Historical Research
Thiruvananthapuram

Dear all

The Post Graduate and Research Department of History, Sri C. Achutha Menon Government College, Thrissur, cordially invites academicians, researchers, and students to participate in the National Seminar on "Historicising Epistemologies and Paradigms: The Mahabharata", sponsored by the Kerala Council for Historical Research (KCHR), to be held on October 28-30, 2025.

The Mahabharata, a timeless text rich in philosophy, ethics, and cultural insight, continues to offer valuable perspectives on human society and governance. This seminar seeks to explore the epic through historical and theoretical frameworks examining its ideas on knowledge, justice, and ethical action within their evolving contexts. By re-engaging the Mahabharata in dialogue with contemporary thought, the seminar highlights its lasting significance in understanding India's intellectual and cultural heritage.

We look forward to your participation and scholarly engagement in making this event an enriching academic experience.
