ANTI-NARCOTICS AWARENESS –
COLLEGE LEVEL ELOCUTION COMPETITION

Anti-Narcotic Cell
Sri C Achutha Menon Government College, Thrissur

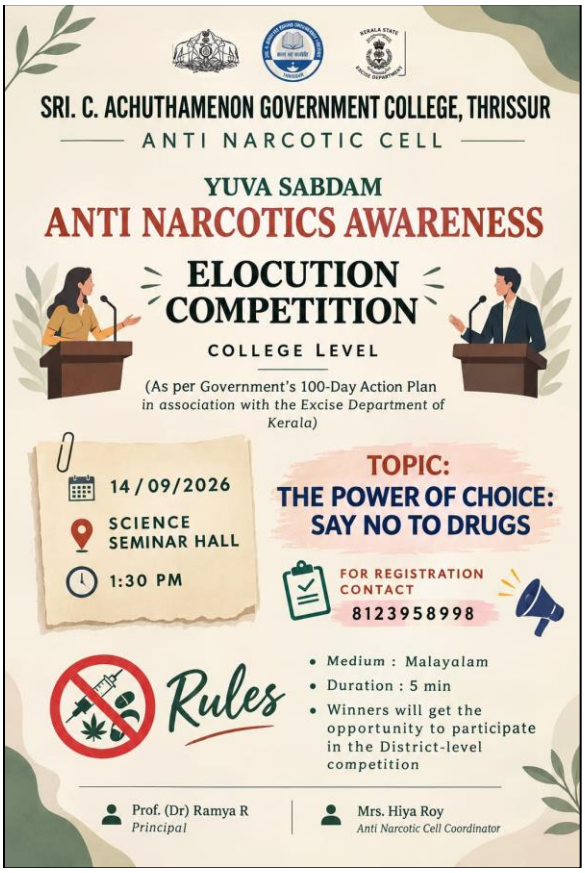

As part of the Government's 100-Day Action Plan, the Anti-Narcotic Cell of Sri. C. Achuthamenon Government College in association with the Excise Department, Government of Kerala, an Anti-Narcotics Awareness College Level Elocution Competition was conducted on 14th September 2026 at the Seminar Hall, Science Block. The programme was organized with the objective of creating awareness among students about the harmful effects of narcotic substances and encouraging them to make informed and responsible choices towards building a drug-free society.

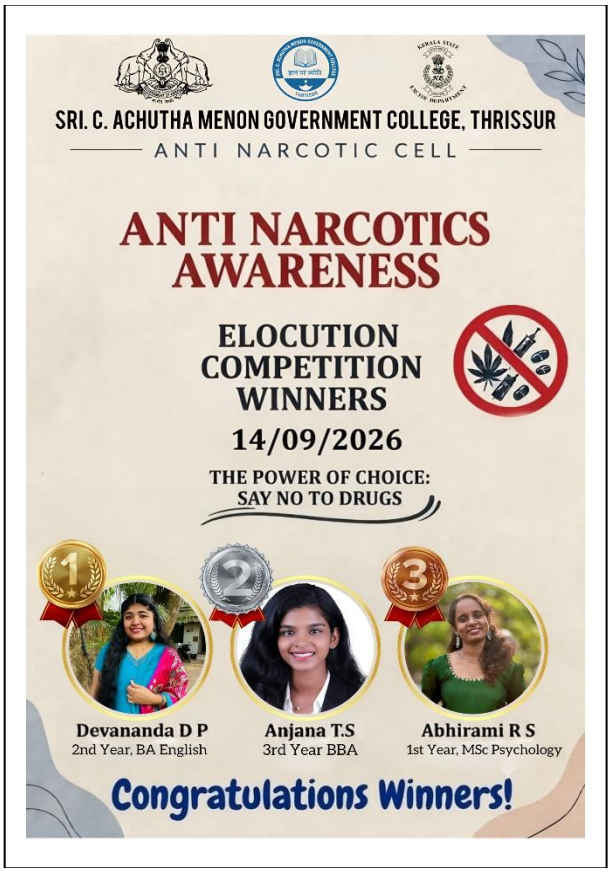

The elocution competition was conducted on the theme "The Power of Choice: Say NO to Drugs." The event provided students with a platform to express their perspectives on drug abuse, its consequences, and the importance of making positive and responsible choices.

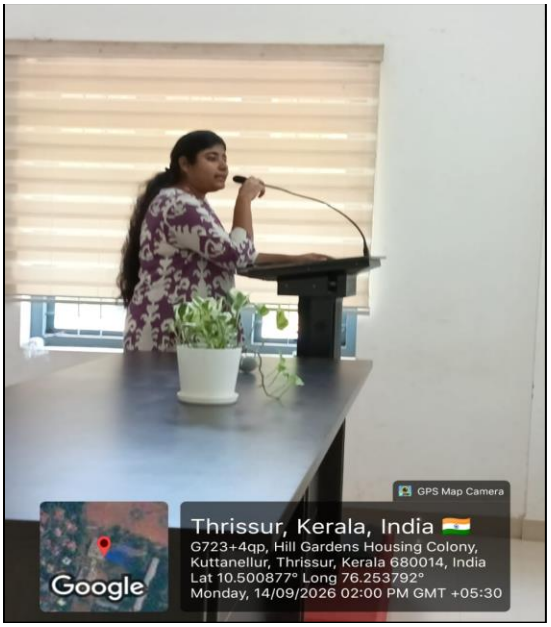

The competition witnessed active participation and thoughtful presentations from the students. A total of 12 students participated in the competition. It was judged by Dr. Sujisha T. G., Associate Professor & HoD, Department of Psychology; Dr. Eldhose K. V., Associate Professor, Department of Commerce; and Mr. Tino Grace Thomas, Assistant Professor, Department of Malayalam.

Devananda D P of 2nd Year, B.A. English secured the First Prize, while Anjana T S of 3rd Year, BBA secured the Second Prize. Abhirami R S of 1st Year, M.Sc. Psychology won the Third Prize. The winners were selected to represent the institution at the District Level.

The programme served as an effective platform for promoting awareness about the dangers of narcotic substances and reinforcing the message that informed choices and collective responsibility are essential in preventing drug abuse among young people.
The programme was coordinated by Mrs. Hiya Roy, Anti-Narcotic Cell Coordinator
